

STATE OF MINNESOTA
CAMPAIGN FINANCE AND PUBLIC DISCLOSURE BOARD
FINDINGS REGARDING PCL CONSTRUCTION SERVICES, INC.

Procedural Background

In response to an inquiry from the Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board (“the Board”). Tara Mattessich, counsel, People in Construction Political Action Committee (#30268), notified the Board that PCL Construction Services, Inc., an association that is not registered with the Board, made a $300 in-kind contribution to People in Construction Political Action Committee.

Minn. Stat. §10A.27, subd. 13 (b), prohibits an unregistered association from making a contribution to a registered political committee unless, at the time the contribution was made, the unregistered association provides the recipient with the disclosure required by Minn. Stat. §10A.20.

On November 15, 2004, People in Construction Political Action Committee, notified the Board that it had returned $300 to PCL Construction Services, Inc. on November 2, 2004

On November 15, 2004, Heidi Wherland, PCL Construction Services, Inc., confirms receipt and deposit of check 1541, dated November 2, 2004, for $300.00 from the AGC of Minnesota.”

This matter was considered by the Board in executive sessions in its meetings on November 17, 2004, and December 17, 2004. The Board’s decision was based upon correspondence from Ms. Mattessich, correspondence from Ms. Wherland and Board records.

Based on the record before it, the Board issues the following:

EVIDENTIARY FINDINGS

1. There is evidence that PCL Construction Services, Inc. inadvertently violated Minn. Stat. §10A.27, subd. 13, when it made a contribution in excess of $100 to the People in Construction Political Action Committee without providing the required disclosure.
2. There is evidence that this contribution was not returned within 60 days. Minn. Stat. §10A.27, subd. 13 (b), provides that an unregistered association that makes a contribution to a political committee without the required disclosure is subject to civil penalty of up to $1,000.

Based on the above Statement of the Evidence, the Board makes the following:

FINDINGS CONCERNING PROBABLE CAUSE

There is probable cause to believe that PCL Construction Services, Inc. inadvertently violated Minn. Stat. §10A.27, subd. 13, by making a contribution to People in Construction Political Action Committee without providing the required disclosure.

Based on the above Findings, the Board issues the following:

ORDER

1. The Board imposes a civil penalty of $200, one times the amount by which the contribution exceeded $100, on PCL Construction Services, Inc., an unregistered association, for making a contribution to a registered political committee without providing the disclosure required by Minn. Stat. §10A.20.
2. PCL Construction Services, Inc. is directed to forward to the Board payment of the civil penalty, by check or money order payable to the State of Minnesota, within thirty days of receipt of this order.
3. If PCL Construction Services, Inc. does not comply with the provisions of this order, the Board's Executive Director shall refer this matter to the appropriate County Attorney for civil enforcement pursuant to Minn. Stat. §10A.28, subd.4.
4. The Board investigation of this matter is hereby made a part of the public records of the Board pursuant to Minn. Stat. §10A.02, subd. 11, and upon payment by the civil penalty imposed herein, this matter is concluded.

Dated: December 17, 2004
